BEFORE THE
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
OFFICE OF HEARINGS
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Air Canada

Violations of 14 C.F.R. Part 259 and 49 U.S.C. § 41712

Enforcement Proceeding

DOT-OST-2021-0073

JOINT STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to the ALJ’s September 7, 2021 Order Extending Deadline for Filing Reply, the parties file this Joint Status Report.

1. On June 15, 2021, the United States Department of Transportation (“Department” or “DOT”) filed an Enforcement Complaint against Air Canada alleging violations of 49 U.S.C. § 41712 and 14 C.F.R. § 259.5 relating to airline ticket refunds (the “Enforcement Complaint”). On June 30, 2021, Air Canada filed a Verified Answer, a Motion to Dismiss the Enforcement Complaint, and a Memorandum in Support thereof. On July 19, 2021, OACP filed an Answer in Opposition to the Motion to Dismiss the Enforcement Complaint.

2. On July 20, 2021, at the Parties’ request, the Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”) entered a stay to enable the Parties to pursue settlement discussions. The ALJ ordered the Parties to file a status report on August 10, 2021 and if the Parties had not reached a settlement, for Air Canada to file a Reply on August 24, 2021.

3. On August 10, 2021, the ALJ entered an Order granting Air Canada’s Consent Motion for a Continuance and Further Stay. The ALJ ordered a status report to be filed on August 20, 2021 and Air Canada's Reply brief be filed no later than September 3, 2021.

4. On August 24, 2021, the ALJ entered an Order granting Air Canada's Consent Motion for a Continuance and Further Stay. The ALJ ordered a status report to be filed on September 3, 2021 and Air Canada's Reply brief be filed no later than September 17, 2021.

5. On September 7, 2021, the ALJ entered an Order Extending Deadline for Filing Reply. The ALJ ordered a status report to be filed on September 17, 2021 and Air Canada's Reply brief be filed no later than October 1, 2021.

6. The parties have continued to engage in productive settlement discussions since July 20, 2021.

7. As of the time of this Joint Status Report, the parties are still in productive settlement discussions.

8. The Parties therefore request that the stay of this matter be continued until, and a further joint status report be filed on, October 1, 2021.

9. Should it become necessary for Air Canada to file a reply in support of its motion to dismiss, such reply will be due on or before October 15, 2021.

Respectfully submitted,
